

About the Show

New Odyssey (3 Guys-30 Instruments) is a cover band from Chicago playing all types of music from across the decades including today's top hits.

These songs are performed on 30 different musical instruments including a pocket trumpet, accordion, sousaphone, melodica, banjo, and bass trumpet.

The key to making every performance a memorable experience is a combination of fun, audience interaction, offbeat light humor, attention-to-detail arrangements and an all-age appeal. Your grandparents will have as much fun as your kids!

As a contractor, you will never have concerns about these musicians. With more than 6,000 performances to date, band members conduct themselves in a friendly, professional manner both on and off the bandstand.

Cooperative and punctual New Odyssey will set up their music, sound and lighting equipment well before your first guests arrive. You need only look at New Odyssey's impressive client history (also available on this website) to know you will be in capable hands.

With a huge, kicking sound and vast array of music spanning over five decades, New Odyssey has the ability to adapt to any function and connect with any audience. Band members adjust each performance to suit your needs; be it a concert setting or hours of dancing.
